

2018

Château de Lussac

This press review is the result of our research. It is by no means exhaustive.

NOTATIONS

Primeurs / Futures

Markus Del Monego (DE) :	88	/ 100
James Suckling (US) :	91-92	/ 100
Tjark Witzgall (DE) :	90-91	/ 100
Yves Beck (CH)	: 88-89	/ 100

Livrables

Yves Beck (CH)	: 90	/ 100
Markus Del Monego (DE)	: 90	/ 100
Peter Moser (All)	: 91	/ 100
James Suckling (US) :	: 92	/ 100

PRIMEURS

Markus Del Monego, April 2019

Dark purple red with violet hue and black core. Quite evolved nose, prunes and dried fruits, ethereal spiciness in the background. On the palate well structured with ripe fruit, balanced tannins and good length.

James Suckling, April 2019

Lots of blueberry and blackberry character with hints of wet earth and spice. Medium body. Firm tannins. Very solid.

Yves Beck, Mars 2019

Dense purple with violet reflections. Bouquet of good intensity marked by notes of black berries and a touch of candied. Delicious appetizer. On the palate, the wine is dense, smooth and endowed with slightly angular tannins. Fruity finish with also candied notes. 2023-2032

LIVRABLES

Yves Beck, November 2020

Dense garnet red. Complex bouquet, of good intensity. It reveals inviting fruity notes with hints of cherries and black berries as well as a hint of cinnamon. Delicious and balanced character on the palate where the wine has fine tannins and a refreshing structure. In recent years, Château de Lussac has gained in finesse and precision. A tasty and inviting wine

Markus Del Monego, November 2020

Dark purple color with a violet tint and a black core. Elegant nose with ripe berries and juicy plums, hints of chocolate and vanilla in the background. On the palate well structured and balanced with juicy fruits, velvety tannins and a nice minerality on the finish, very good length. A wine with promising potential.

Peter Moser, Décembre 2020

Dark ruby garnet, violet reflections, subtle ocher edge. Fine red cherry fruit, delicate like wild berries, subtle precious wood spice, orange zest, still a little restrained. Medium body, firm texture, integrated tannins, red berries, subtle extract sweetness in the aftertaste, will benefit from bottle aging.

James Suckling, Janvier 2021

A Polished and creamy textured young Bordeaux with cherry, blackberry and some chalky undertones. It's medium-bodied with lovely tannins and a fresh, round-textured finish. Drink in 2024.